Perused roznama and record. The application filed under Section 13(3) of the Registration of Births & Deaths Act, 1969. Record shows that the applicant was absent since long. The case has been kept for dismissal order on 19/12/2025. More than sufficient time is given to the applicant. Today the applicant is absent despite repeated calls throughout the day. The case is old and ought to have been proceeded on priority. But constant absence of the applicant and failed to take further steps shows that he is no more interested in the proceeding. In the circumstances, there is hardly any reason to keep the case pending. Accordingly, case stands dismissed for want of steps.
