

ORDER BELOW EXH. 23

1. Present application is filed for extension of stay. Defendants objected to it on various grounds mentioned in the say.
2. The court is ready to hearing the argument, other side is also ready to argue out the matter, but defendants though objected to the extension not ready to argue out the matter. It is also not desirable that without hearing him on merits the application shall be decided. Therefore, no option but to extend the interim order, hence interim injunction extended upto 10/03/2016 as consented by both the parties.
