

CNR No.ODKH010040362026

Crl. Revision No.262/2026

No.02, Dt.17.08.2026

Office note is ready. Seen the same. The defects pointed out in the office note are removed. Learned counsel for the petitioner is present. Admit.

Heard Mr. C.R. Behera, learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Special P.P.

This revision is directed against the order dated 24.07.2026 passed in CMC No.939 of 2026 by learned Addl. DCP-cum-Executive Magistrate, Bhubaneswar, whereunder & whereby, the petitioner has been asked to furnish bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties to show good behaviour for a period of two years with certain conditions.

Mr. C.R. Behera, learned counsel for the petitioner contended that before the learned Magistrate, the delinquent/petitioner has filed an application to furnish cash security of Rs.10,000/- in lieu of property security, but that application has been rejected by the learned Magistrate. The delinquent/petitioner is ready & willing to furnish one surety or cash security of Rs.10,000/-.

Learned Special P.P. contended that if that portion of order is modified, then, there would be no objection from the side of State.

Thus, having heard learned counsels for the parties, the impugned order dated 24.07.2026 is modified to the extent that the petitioner/delinquent shall execute a bond of Rs.10,000/- with one surety along with other conditions as imposed by the learned Magistrate.

With the aforesaid modification, the criminal revision is disposed of.

(Dictated)

Sessions Judge