

CNR No. MHSI070002382014
Order passed below Exh. No.77
in R.C.S. No. 69/2014

The application is filed by the plaintiff for condonation of delay in filing application for taking legal representatives of deceased defendant no.3 on record.

2. The defendants have objected the application by filing say on overleaf of the application itself. It is contended the reasons advanced therein are not satisfactory. The plaintiff has filed present application at belated stage. He prayed that if the application is allowed, heavy costs be imposed on the plaintiff.

3. Perused record. Heard both sides.

4. It appears from the perusal of the record that defendant no.3 died on 18/10/2025. Article 120 of the Limitation Act, 1963 prescribes a limitation of 90 days for bringing legal representatives of the deceased party from the date of death. So, it was the duty of plaintiff to bring legal heirs of the deceased defendant no. 3 within 90 days from the date of his death. It appears that the plaintiff has failed to bring the legal heirs of the deceased within the prescribed period. There appears to be a delay of approximately 1 month and 18 days to move the present application.

5. It is submitted by the plaintiff that, the death certificate of the deceased was not made available to the plaintiff with in stipulated time. Therefore, it was not possible to file the necessary application for bringing the legal representatives on record within the prescribed time. Therefore, there is a delay in bringing the legal representative of deceased defendant no.3 on record. The said delay is not intentional or willful.

6. The reason advanced by the plaintiff seems to be justifiable. The said reason is also supported by an affidavit. Considering the nature of the proceeding, and in order to decide the matter on merit, it will be just and proper to condone the delay. However, inconvenience caused to the defendants can be compensated by imposing costs upon the plaintiff. From the above discussion the application deserves to be allowed. Hence, the following order is passed.

	ORDER
1.	The application Exh. 77 is allowed, subject to payment of costs of Rs. 200/- to be paid by plaintiff to the defendants on or before the next date.
2.	On payment of costs the delay caused in filing an application for taking legal representatives of the deceased defendant no.3 on record, shall be condoned.
