Perused the application submitted by the plaintiff for service of summons on defendants no. 4 by affixing a copy of summon and notice in some conspicuous place of the last known address of defendant no. 4. Perused the record. Record shows that several time the plaintiff has attempted to serve the summons and notice on defendants no. 4. The application shows that there are satisfactory reasons on record to believe that the summons and notice cannot be served in the ordinary way to the defendant no. 4. Since the summons and notice cannot be served in the ordinary mode, it would be just and proper to issue summons and notice to defendant no. 4 with a direction that bailiff shall served suit summons by affixing a copy of summons and notice some conspicuous part of the house of defendants no. 4 which the defendant is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally work for gain.
