ORDER BELOW EXH.171 IN RCS No.669/2003

1. This is an application for impleadment of heirs of late defendant No. 1 in the array of defendants in this suit. Consequent upon this application, my learned predecessor was pleased to call say of other side. There had been sheer stymied in the progress of this suit. Therefore, I felt it germane to issue notices to the proposed parties for ascertaining their stand. The notices were served on them. They submitted their say at Exh. 173. They partly conceded with the contents of application and resisted on the count that the name of defendant No. 1/3 and 1/4 are incorrectly mentioned. Consequent to this development, the say of plaintiff was called. The learned counsel of plaintiff submitted a detailed clarification at Exh. 181 and cumulatively stated that the names of defendant No. 1/3 will be mentioned as Ravindra instead of Ravi and of defendant No. 1/4 will be mentioned Vignesh instead of Vishvesh. Having acquiesced accident slip or inadvertent mistakes, both sides have argued for just and proper order.

2. The suit is for recovery of possession. Proposed defendant No. 1 to 4 in the above mentioned corrections are necessary parties to the suit, their presence is essential for the purpose of adjudication and for determining real question in controversy. Therefore, I proceed to pass the following order.

ORDER
