

Order Blow Exh. 30 in R.C.S.No.407/2023
(Navajsharif Moula Mujawar Vs. District Collector, Sangli & Ors.)
(CNR NO.MHSN020022682023)

Perused application and say (Exh.33). Heard Learned advocates of the both parties and gone through the record of proceeding.

2. Perusal of record shows that, defendant Nos.1 and 2 are government servants or representatives of government. The suit has been filed by the plaintiff for declaration and injunction.

3. It is contended that, due to day-to-day official work and authorized person who was in-charge of the judicial work has been transferred and new employees have been appointed in that place, it was difficult for these defendants to give information to their counsel and to submit their written statement within limitation. The defendants being government officials and representatives of the government it will be proper to give fair opportunity to them to put forth their defence. It will help the court as well to finally adjudicate the matter on merit without creating multiplicity of litigation.

4. Moreover, it is also settled principle of law that mere delay can not be ground to reject the application when it can be very well compensate by imposing costs on erring party. Hence, in view of this discussion I pass the following order;

ORDER

Application (Exh.30) is allowed subject to cost of Rs. 200/-.
