

Order below Exh.39 in Spl.C.S.No.544/2023

(Shobhatai Mane Vs. Sardar Shelke & Ors.)

(CNR No.MHSN02-002329-2023)

The plaintiff has moved this application for appointment of defendant No.1 as guardian of minor defendant No.2 namely Manvendra Shelke. It is contended that defendant No.2 is minor & defendant No.1 is his natural father. Accordingly, to represent him, it is prayed that he may be appointed as guardian of defendant No.2. Despite of giving sufficient opportunity, no say is filed by the defendants. Hence, the application is proceeded without their say.

Considering the relation between proposed guardian & minor defendant No.2, the interest of proposed guardian does not appear to be adverse against the minor defendants. Present application is unresisted. Accordingly, for representing the minor defendant No.2 in better manner, it is desirable to appoint defendant No.1 as his guardian. Hence, the application deserves to be allowed and defendant No.1 is hereby appointed as guardian of defendant No.2 vide Order XXXII Rule 3 of CPC.
