(CNR MHSN02-002416-2025)

Perused the record. Defendants have served with suit summons on 26.12.2025. They have appeared in the matter on 08.01.2026. However, since last two dates, they have neither remained present nor filed any adjournment application further. Ld. Advocate for plaintiff is present on each and every date and he expressed the urgency to proceed further in the matter. Looking at the abovementioned conduct of the defendants, they are not looking to be diligent in defending the matter. No sufficient reason have been put forward by them for extension of time to file written statement beyond the period of 30 days. In such case, looking at the oral submissions of Ld. Advocate for plaintiff and lethargy on the side of defendants, it will be proper to proceed without written statement and reply of defendants to the Exh.1 and Exh.5 respectively. Accordingly, the suit to proceed without written statement and reply of defendants to the Exh.1 and Exh.5 respectively. Defendants to take note.
