Jagannath Hindurao Patil & Ors.
Vs.
Chandrakant Kedari alias Babaso Patil & Ors.

Perused the application. No say filed by the defendants.
Perused the record. Heard.

2. It is the contention of the plaintiff that, the order passed below Exh. 44 in RCS no. 353/2024 was not uploaded within time. Therefore, he couldn't get the knowledge of the same and file amended copy within time i.e. 14 days from the date of order. Hence, he prayed for permission to carry out the amendment now.

3. Upon the perusal of record it appears that the order of Exh. 44 was uploaded on next date. There is no delay on the part of staff of this Court in uploading the order passed below Exh. 44. However, considering the fact the delay is of only 12 days, no hardship will be caused to either party. Therefore, permission is granted to carry out the amendment as directed to order passed below Exh. 44. However, the time lapsed can not be ignored and delay is due to the fault of the plaintiff. Considering all above reasons, I am inclined to allow this application and the order
