CNR:MHSN05000162-2022
(Mohan Annappa Mane V/s Ashok Akaram Mane Etc.)

The present application is filed by the plaintiff for grant of Status-quo till the decision of Exh. 5. Perused the application and say. Heard both the Ld. Advocates. On Perusal of the record, it appears that the plaintiff is filed the suit at that time he has filed injunction application under Order 39 Rule 1 and 2 of the C. P. C. The notices was issued to the defendant. Defendant appeared and obtained time for filing their say to the injunction application as well as written statement. Today plaintiff came with the story that the status-quo order is necessary. On the other hand the defendant contended that there is no requirement of status-quo order and application of the plaintiff is not tenable. On going through the record and proceeding of the suit it reveals that the suit is fixed for filing say of the defendant to the injunction application. In this matter there is not documentary evidence came on record to show the factual position. It the plaintiff or either party shows factual position then and thereafter, the status-quo order can be passed. In the present matter there is no any documentary evidence came on record to that effect. If the order of status-quo is granted then multiplicity of the judicial proceeding will be arise. Hence, I am of the view that there is no substance in the application and it deserves to be rejected. Hence, I pass the following order;

Order

The application is hereby rejected.
