Complainant is present. He is verified. Verification is at Exh.06. Documents are also verified. Perused the online complaint. The accused is resident of Yedenipani, Tal. Walwa, Dist. Sangli. Thus, the accused is residing at a place beyond the area in which this court exercises jurisdiction. The Hon'ble High Court of Judicature Appellate site, Bombay has circulated circular No.Rule/P.1605/ 2022, dated 27/01/2022. Vide clause No.2 of that circular, there requires an inquiry by the Magistrate under Section 202 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 where the accused is resident of the area beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the court where complaint is presented. Therefore, issuance of process against the accused is postponed under Section 225(1) of the BNSS, 2023 (for short 'the Code'). Instead of ordering police to carry investigation, considering the nature of the offence, I find it suitable to inquire into the case myself under Section 225(1) of the Code for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused. Therefore, for the purpose of inquiry under Section 225(1) of the Code, I pass the following order :-

ORDER

1. The complainant do submit his affidavit in support of his case.

2. The complainant shall also file affidavit(s), of witness(es), if any, otherwise, the complainant shall mention in his above mentioned affidavit that there is no witness to the transaction between the complainant and accused.
3. The complainant shall also submit all documentary evidence on record, if any other than the documents on record. If no other document, then file pursis in that behalf.
