

ORDER ON APPLICATION BELOW EXHIBIT- 46

(Passed on 11th day of October, 2022)

Plaintiffs have sought permission to file documents on record. It is submitted by the plaintiff that documents sought to be produced on record are very important to resolve controversy between the parties. Hence, this application. Defendants have opposed the application and submitted that said application is moved with intent to prolong the matter. Thus, prayed for rejection of the application.

2] Heard the parties. Perused the record. The instant suit is for specific performance of contract and alternatively for refund of amount, declaration and permanent injunction. The suit is pending for evidence of the plaintiff. Having regard to the nature of dispute between the parties and the stage of the litigation, I find it just and proper to allow the plaintiff to file documents as per list on record for just decision in this case. Hence, production of documents is allowed, as prayed.
