

Order below Exhibit. 29 in Misc. Civil Application no. 20 of 2010
(CNR No. MHSN130004112010)

The present application is filed by the opponents to set aside 'Suit to proceed without cross-examination' order passed against them.

2) The opponents contended that the present application is pending for steps of the applicant since the opponent no. 2 and 3 became major. The opponent had filed pursis regarding it. They further contended that on last date applicant filed pursis and stated that her former evidence be treated as her evidence. On last date opponents were absent and hence no cross order is passed against them. They further contended that in the interest of justice present application needs to be allowed. Hence prayed to allow the application.

3) The applicant resisted the application contending that contents in the application are not true and correct. Opponent deliberately delay the matter. Hence prayed to reject the application.

4) Considering the nature of the application, it would be fair and proper to give opportunity to the opponents to conduct the cross-examination of the applicant. In view of it, the application deserves to be allowed.

Accordingly, the following order is passed :

ORDER

- 1) The application is allowed.
- 2) The 'Application to proceed without cross-examination' order passed against the opponents is hereby set aside.
