

CT Cases 1302/2025
AMARDEEP SINGH Vs. RINKY GAUTAM AND ORS.
PS : Malviya Nagar

21.01.2026

Present : Sh. Lokesh Kumar Mishra, Ld. Counsel for the complainant appearing through VC.

01. By this order, the Court shall dispose of the application of complainant under section 175 (3) BNSS.

02. The case of the complainant is that the complainant met the accused no. 1 through Bumble App and thereafter they started talking to each other and accused no. 1 met the complainant and made physical relation with the Complainant. Thereafter on 19.04.2024, the accused no. 1 told the complainant that she is pregnant and she started blackmailing the complainant for giving amount of Rs. 30,00,000 to the accused no. 1. Thereafter the complainant gave Rs. 2 lakhs to the accused no. 1 on 21.04.2024. It is further alleged by the complainant that the accused no. 1 from the last week of August 2024 again started demanding Rs. 20 lakhs from the complainant and started blackmailing the complainant that she will implicate the complainant in false rape case and the complainant will not be able to return to Canada and his career will be spoiled. The complainant gave Rs. 10 lakhs in cash to the accused no. 1 and due to her repeated demand, the complainant further transferred Rs. 8,01,000 in the bank account of the accused no. 1 on 15.09.2024. Thereafter the accused no. 1 registered FIR under section 376/313 of IPC against the complainant on 09.10.2024. The complainant has also alleged that prior to the registration of the above FIR against him, the accused no. 1 along with one unknown person had a conference call with complainant in which the accused no. 1 along with the unknown person who portrayed himself as a lawyer threatened the complainant that the complainant should meet the monetary demand of the accused no. 1 failing which the complainant will be implicated in rape case.

03. Record perused. The present complaint is supported with the affidavit of the complainant. On perusal of the record, this Court is of the view that the allegations made by the complainant disclose commission of offence of extortion punishable under section 308(2) of BNS by the accused no. 1 and the unknown associate of the accused no. 1 whose identity is not known to the complainant. Further, police investigation is necessary to establish the identity of the unknown associate of the accused no. 1 against whom the complainant has alleged the offence of extortion.

04. Perusal of the record shows that the complainant has also annexed his Whatsapp chats with the accused no. 1. This Court is of the view that police investigation is necessary to verify the authenticity of these Whatsapp chats between the complainant and the accused no. 1. Therefore, this Court is of the view that electronic evidence has to be collected and verified by the police in the present case .

05. Accordingly, SHO concerned is directed to register FIR u/s 308(2) of BNS against the accused no. 1 and her unknown associate and file the compliance report on 03.02.2026. Further this Court is of the view that the present case be investigated by the police official who is not from PS Malviya Nagar as the FIR against the present complainant was registered and investigated by PS Malviya Nagar.

06. Therefore, DCP concerned is directed to depute IO who is not from PS Malviya Nagar to investigate the present case and file the compliance report on 03.02.2026.

Copy of this order be sent to SHO, PS Malviya Nagar and DCP concerned for compliance.

The present application u/s 175 (3) BNSS stands disposed of accordingly.

Copy of this order be given dasti to counsel for complainant.
