

Cr. B. A. No. 426/2026.
Kiran Ghodake Vs. The State.
(CNR - MH50050008412026)

ORDER BELOW EXH. 05

1. By filing this application, the applicants are claiming interim - anticipatory bail in connection with Crime No. 514/2026 registered with Mangalvedha police station for an offence under Section 61(1), 351(2), 351(3) and u/s 67(A) of Information Technology Act, 2000.
2. Heard learned advocate for applicant/accused. It is submitted by Ld. Advocate for applicant/accused that, applicant has not played any role. He submitted that, the main application is pending and if meanwhile the accused is arrested, the very purpose of filing this application would be frustrated. It is submitted that the applicant is falsely implicated in the alleged offence. He has no concern with the said offence. It is submitted that prima facie there is no case against the applicant and the allegations are vague. The applicant is ready to abide by any condition, if imposed by the Court.
3. I have gone through the record. The FIR shows that, name of this applicant/accused is mentioned in the FIR. There are specific allegations against applicant/accused that, he made friendship with victim. He took her nude video and thereafter by blackmailing that, he will show said video to relatives of victim, committed intercourse with victim. Offence is serious in nature. It appears that, there is active involvement of applicant/accused in the crime. Serious allegations of forcible sexual intercourse are levelled against the accused. Thus, it is necessary to hear State before passing any order. At this stage considering role of accused specified in FIR as well as nature of offence, the applicant/accused is not entitled to grant interim relief. Hence, I am of the view that it would not be justifiable to grant interim protection to these applicants. Hence, I proceed to pass following order.
