

Order Below Exh.19 in Civil Miscellaneous Appln. No.155/2022

Kisan Shankar Narale Vs. Sandipan Mahadev Mane & Ors.7

Respondent No.1 Sandipan Mahadev Mane filed this application for setting aside 'No Say' order submitting that the signature of respondent was not obtained in time and there was delay in filing the say. Further contended that considering the nature of proceeding respondent No.1 Sandipan Mahadev Mane may be permitted to file say.

02. Applicant strongly objected submitting that the grounds are false and frivolous. The grounds mentioned in application are not admitted and accepted. Intentionally the respondent delayed to file say. Hence the application be rejected.

03. Heard both parties.

04. Record shows that the applicant by filing this application on the judgment and decree passed by C.J.J.D. Sangola in R.C.S. No. 287/2010 dtd. 6/10/2022, prayed for setting aside the judgement dtd. 6/10/2022 and to remand back the same. The present respondent No.1 is the original plaintiff in that matter (RCS 287/2010) and want to contest the proceeding. The grounds appears to be justifiable. Hence, order.

ORDER

01. Application is allowed.

02. The say filed by respondent No.1 alongwith this application be accepted and it be exhibited.
