Present: Sh. Satish Sansi, Sh. Shubham Kumar and Ms. Shreya Mudgal, Ld. Counsels for plaintiff.

An application under Order VI Rule 17 r/w Section 151 CPC and proposed amended plaint filed on behalf of plaintiff.

Heard. File perused.

By way of present application, plaintiff wants to amend the prayer clause of the plaint. The present suit is still at initial stage and defendants are yet to be served. The proposed amendment shall not change the nature of suit.

In view of the contentions made in the application, submissions given by Ld. counsel for plaintiff and above observations, application under Order VI Rule 17 r/w Section 151 CPC stands allowed.

Application under Order VI Rule 17 r/w Section 151 CPC is accordingly disposed off.

Amended plaint is taken on record.

In para No.24 of the amended plaint, plaintiff has valued the relief of declaration, permanent injunction and mandatory injunction as Rs.200/-, Rs.130/- and Rs.130/- respectively.

As per Section 15 CPC, every suit shall be instituted in the Court of the lowest grade competent to try it.

As per valuation of the amended plaint, the Court of Ld. Senior Civil Judge is having the pecuniary jurisdiction to try, entertain and adjudicate the present suit and therefore, the plaint is returned under Order VII Rule 10 CPC for filing the same before the competent Court.

Original plaint, amended plaint, court fees and original documents, if any, be returned to plaintiff after due endorsement, as per law.

(3)

Ahlmad is also directed to take signed copies of the original plaint, amended plaint, documents, if any, and court fees on record at the time of its returning.

Present suit is accordingly disposed of.

File be consigned to record room after due compliance.
