R.C.S. No.182/2020
Aruna Vs. Kapil & ors.

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT-22

01. Heard both parties. It is admitted position on record that the plaintiff and defendant No.1 are near relatives. The learned counsel for the plaintiff during argument admitted that the talking was going on between the parties for compromising the suit. However, the compromise is not arrived between the parties. Defendant No.1 mentioned in the application that there was talking of compromise between the parties and on account of this, he failed to file written statement on record. This would be a reason for not filing the written statement on record. Moreover, the present suit is for declaration and perpetual injunction. The dispute is about the lane situated between the plaintiff and defendant No.1. Both parties are claiming ownership over the alleged lane. So to decide the rightful claimant of the alleged lane, opportunity of hearing required to be given to defendant No.1. Considering this reasons advanced by defendant No.1, permission is granted to defendant No.1 to file written statement on record subject to payment of costs of Rs.1,000/- to the plaintiff. Defendant No.1 to pay this costs within 15 days from this order to the plaintiff.
