

Appeal No.06 of 2025

Mrs.Nazish Farhana Abdul Rehman Shaikh ..Appellant

..Vs..

President/Secretary, Anjuman-I-Islam
D.N.Road, Mumbai 1 & Others

..Respondents.

Common Order below Exh.17 & 18
(Dated 9th December, 2025)

- 1) Respondent Nos.1 to 3 by filing these two applications ( Exh.17 and 18) prayed for permission to produce documents on record.
- 2) Read Application. Perused Say. Heard both side.
- 3) According to Respondent Nos.1 to 3, they have filed documents with list Exh.17A and Exh.18A on record. Said documents are necessary for deciding Appeal and proving their defence, therefore, permission may kindly be granted to file/produce said documents on record.
- 4) These two applications are opposed by Appellant by filing common say at Exh.19. According to Appellant, these documents are manufactured for filing same before this Tribunal. Documents filed on record are false and misleading in nature. Thus permission cannot be granted to file these documents on record.

5) I have given thoughtful consideration to the submission made before me. I have also perused documents filed on record.

On perusal of documents filed with list attached with these two applications, it appears that said documents are necessary on record for deciding the controversy between parties. It is necessary on the part of this Tribunal to give fair opportunities to both parties to fight litigation by filing documents on record. Thus, application deserves to be allowed. Accordingly following order.

ORDER

1. Applications below Exhibit Nos.17 and 18 are allowed.
2. Respondent Nos.1 & 2 are hereby permitted to file documents on record.
