Order below application at Exh. 24

Perused application and say. Appellant has produced documents i.e. the copies of communication in between the appellant and the respondents, order passed by the Hon'ble High Court, the Charity Commissioner and the Education Officer and stated that these documents are important to decide the appeal on merits. Other side has objected for production of documents filed by appellant. Considering the nature of dispute, the documents are necessary to decide the appeal. No prejudice would cause to the respondents if the documents are taken on record. Respondent management is having right to counter the documents. Hence, production of document is allowed.
