ORDER BELOW EXH.1 IN

PWDVA NO.3 / 2018

Deepak Gajanan Dharashivkar ... Appellant (opponent no.1)

Versus

Jyoti Deepak Dharashivkar & ors ... Respondents (Applicants)

1. The appellant (opponent no.1) filed present appeal challenging the judgment and order dt.13.02.2017 passed by the learned Magistrate (6th Court) Satara in Cri.M.A.No.220/2012.

2. The appeal is pending from the date of its filing i.e. from 06.01.2018. After going through the record, it is apparent that the appellant by filing application (Exh.08) sought an adjournment on the ground that the appellant has filed another appeal in which the order of maintenance passed in HMP and the said appeal is pending on the file of District Judge and Addl. Sessions Judge, Satara. However, no steps whatsoever are being taken to club together that appeal along with present appeal. The said adjournment application (Exh.08) was filed on 12.11.2021. Thereafter, no steps whatsoever are being taken to prosecute present appeal.

3. Considering no action on the part of appellant, this Court suo motu vide order dt.02.03.2026 issued notice to both parties and kept the appeal for orders. In view of the same, the notices came to be issued to both parties as their address is one and the same. The report goes to show that both parties were not found on given address. Thus, considering the peculiar facts coupled with long pendency, following order :-

ORDER

1. The appeal stands dismissed for want of prosecution.
2. The judgment and order dt.13.02.2017 passed by the learned Magistrate (6th Court) Satara in Cri.M.A.No.220/2012, stands confirmed.
3. Pending applications if any stands disposed off.
4. Issue memo accordingly.
