

ORDER BELOW APPLICATION (EXH. 62) in
SPECIAL CASE NO. 23/2018

Since last 2 to 3 dates the accused in the matter insist for expeditious hearing of the matter. On last date in presence of the first informant, the accused and Special Prosecutor Shri. L.K. Khade, it was amicably decided to decide all pending applications sequence wise. Accordingly, as per adjournment application (Exh. 59) moved by the first informant the adjournment was granted with direction to the applicant to remain present and proceed with hearing of the pending applications without fail. However, today the first informant has not turned up inspite of repeated calls till 12.30 p.m. Even she has not filed any application seeking adjournment.

02. Shri. M.H. Oak, Special Prosecutor, today filed fresh appearance purshis (Exh.61). He submits that for the first time today he is appearing in the matter, and, therefore, he is required to go through the record. Considering the genuine difficulty of the Special Prosecutor, in the interest of justice adjournment is granted as a last chance with understanding that on the next date argument on the pending application first in sequence will be heard positively. Failing which the application will be decided in the absence of the first informant and/or the first informant, as the case may be.

SATARA

Date : 18th December, 2020

(S.G. Nandimath)
Special Judge, SATARA