

ORDER BELOW EXH. 22 IN R.C.S. No. 230/2023

01. Perused the application and say. Perused the case papers.
02. This application is filed for setting aside no written statement order and allowing the State to file the written statement. It is apparent that the suit is proceeded against the State and its officers without their written statement. Now, the State want to file the written statement and same can be allowed. The other side objected the application but objection is liable to be turned down because written statement is required for due adjudication. No prejudice would be occasioned to anybody. So, I am of the view that application should be allowed and defendant should be given a chance to file their pleadings. Hence, I am inclined to pass following order.

ORDER

1. The application is hereby allowed.
2. The written statement filed by the defendant be taken on record.
3. No written statement order stands set aside.
4. No any order as to costs.
