

Order Below Exh. No.30 in Spl.C.S. NO.107/2019

Sadashiv Yashwant Jadhav

Vs.

Collector, Satara & Ors.

1. The present application is filed by defendant no. 2 to 4 for setting aside “No W.S.” and “No Say” order on the ground that, due to intervening period of Covid-19 pandemic it was not possible for the present defendants to get the requisite documents. Similarly, due to sessions matter the counsel could not be able to get required time. Accordingly, it is prayed to set aside the order of No W.S. & No Say. The plaintiff not filed say. Perused the record. Heard. It is to be noted that though the reasons mentioned in the present application does not appear to be justifiable for huge delay but considering the intermediate period of Covid-19 Pandemic and further considering that if the no written statement order not set aside the valuable right of the defendants would be at stake I think it justifiable to set aside said 'No W.S.’’ order. However, as far as the prayer of setting aside “No Say” order is concerned, it is to be noted that already the applications for interim injunctions of the plaintiff have been decided and therefore, there remains no question now of setting aside the order of “No Say” passed on those interim injunction applications. Accordingly, I pass the following order :-

Order

1. The application is partly allowed.
2. The order only of 'No W.S.’’ passed against defendant no. 2 to 4 is set aside.

3. The present defendants to bear cost of present application.
