

Order Below Exh. 65

Plaintiffs have moved the present application for delay condonation, contending therein that, defendant no.1 Ramchandra Ganpati Koli died on 15/09/2020 and as his heirs are not brought on record within period of limitation and so, suit is abated against him. According to the plaintiff, due to Covid-10 pandemic lockdown, plaintiff was not able to attend the Court and so, there is delay and suit has been abated.

02 On perusal of the application it appears that, plaintiff sought delay condonation as well as setting aside abatement against defendant no.3. Considering fact that, due to Covid-19 pandemic lockdown parties were not able to attend the Court and plaintiff is illiterate women. Delay needs to be condoned and abatement needs to be set aside in the interest of justice. Hence, following order.

ORDER

- 1) Application is allowed.
- 2) Delay is hereby condoned and abatement against defendant no.1 is hereby set aside.
