

ORDER BELOW EXH. 9 IN P.W.D.VA. NO. 42/2026.
(MHST070017032026)

Sakshi Abhijit Thorat .. Applicant

- Versus -

Abhijit Rajendra Thorat & others .. Respondents

The present application has been filed by the applicant seeking interim reliefs. The learned Advocate for the applicant pressed for ad-interim Protection Order and Monetary Relief. The applicant has also filed a separate application for ad-interim relief at Exh. 5.

2] Perused the application and the record. Heard the learned Advocate for the applicant Shri. C.N. Deshpande.

3] The applicant has alleged that the respondents have committed acts of domestic violence against her. At present, she is residing with her friend on a paying guest basis. She is pursuing her education. According to her, she is unable to take support from her parental home due to her love marriage. Therefore, she has prayed for grant of ad-interim Protection Order and ad-interim Monetary Relief till the decision of application Exh. 5.

4] Upon perusal of the application at Exh. 1, documents placed on record, and the Assets and Liabilities Affidavit, it appears that the applicant is legally wedded wife of respondent No. 1. It further appears that respondent No. 1 has filed a petition for restitution of conjugal rights before the Court of the learned Senior Division Judge, Karad.

5] Considering the allegations made by the applicant regarding domestic violence, it prima facie appears that the applicant has been subjected to domestic violence at the hands of the respondents. Therefore, the applicant has made out a prima facie case for grant of an ad-interim Protection Order so as to safeguard her rights pending hearing of the interim reliefs application.

6] So far as Monetary Relief is concerned, it is necessary to hear the respondents and to consider material regarding the income, liabilities, and financial capacity of both parties. In the Assets and Liabilities Affidavit, the applicant has stated her qualification as M.B.A. Further, when queried by the Court, the applicant stated that she is pursuing LL.B. education. This indicates that the applicant is educated and capable of earning. However, the actual entitlement and quantum of Monetary Relief can be determined only after hearing both sides and considering necessary evidence. Therefore, the prayer for ad-interim Monetary Relief cannot be granted at this stage. Hence, the application deserves to be partly allowed. Hence, I pass the following order:

ORDER

1. The application (Exh. 9) is partly allowed.
2. The respondents shall not commit any act of physical violence against the applicant.
3. They shall not enter the premises where the applicant resides or her place of education.
4. They shall not communicate with the applicant either through phone calls or through any social media applications.

5. The Protection Officer and the Police Inspector of Karad City Police Station are directed to implement this order and extend necessary assistance to the applicant.
6. A copy of this order be forwarded to the Protection Officer, Karad, and the Police Inspector, Karad City Police Station, for necessary action.
