

ORDER BELOW EXH. 1 IN Civil M. A. No. 13/2009.
(Julekhabhi Aayub Bhaldar Vs. Gulab Yusum Dafedar)

1. Perused record. It appears that application is pending for steps. On 31/01/2026 respondent filed purshis at Exh.49 and contended that, applicant had demise on 17/11/2025 but failed to file any documentary evidence about death of applicant. In spite of sufficient opportunity no one present on behalf of applicant or her representatives(if any). Record further shows that application is more than 16 year old. Today, in spite of repeated callings till 5.30 pm, applicant and her advocate are remained absent.

2. The above circumstances show that applicant is not willing to proceed with this application. Hence, there is no reason to keep the matter without any progress and deserves to be dismissed in default. In the result, following order.

Order
