R.C.S. No. 74/2017
Kashinath Jagdale Vs Raghunath
Jagdale & others

ORDER BELOW EXH.1

Both parties are absent when called repeatedly. Perused the record and proceeding. Since long, absolutely no effective steps are taken by the plaintiff to proceed with the suit. Today neither plaintiff remained present nor filed any application on record.

2. Record shows that, on 21/02/2026, order on Exh.1 was passed and the matter was kept for dismissal order. But, despite of it, today, no effective steps are taken by the plaintiff. It shows that, the plaintiff is not interested to proceed with the suit. I find no justifiable reasons to adjourn the proceeding further. The suit is more than 9 years old. No purpose would be served by keeping the record pending on the file of this Court. Therefore, I think it appropriate to dispose of the suit for want of prosecution. Hence, following order is passed.

ORDER

1. The suit is dismissed in default for want of prosecution.
2. All the interim applications, if any, are filed accordingly.
