Criminal Bail Application No.8/2026

Aruna Jagannath Shinde Vs. State

(Phaltan City Police Station C. R. No.66/2025)

ORDER PASSED BELOW EXH.01.

(Dtd. 06.08.2026)

1] This is an anticipatory bail application under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita 2023.

2] The applicant/accused Aruna Jagannath Shinde is apprehending her arrest in Crime No.66/2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 406 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

3] The prosecution case is that :

The complainant and her husband collected money from the public by promising them to give high returns on their investments. After collecting the money the applicant/accused and her husband refused to pay the money to the investors. One of the complainant Vikas Baban Saste lodged this complaint against the applicant/accused and her husband. The police arrested the husband of the applicant/accused, he was sent to judicial custody and later on he was released on regular bail. The applicant/accused is apprehending her arrest in this offence.

4] The applicant accused states that she has not committed any offence. She is falsely implicated in this offence. She states that there is nothing to be recovered from her. She has sought this anticipatory bail on her serious health condition. She has filed medical documents of Vedant Hospital to show that she is suffering from “Nesiodioblastosis”. She was admitted in hospital for many days and her health condition is getting bad day by day. She states that later on it was found that the complainant in this case Vikas Baban Saste has collected the money from the public and later on refused to return. She states that her custodial interrogation is not necessary. She is ready to co-operate the police in the investigation. So she has prayed to release her on anticipatory bail.

5] Against this application, the say of Ld. Addl. P.P. and the concerned Police Station was called. The Police and the Addl. P.P. have strongly opposed to allow the anticipatory bail application and prayed to reject it.

6] Heard both sides. Perused the papers filed along with the bail application. Perused the medical papers of the applicant/accused. The applicant/accused is suffering from severe diseases. She is admitted several times in the hospital. It is found that the complainant in this F.I.R. is the real accused. He has collected the money and lodged this complaint against the present applicant/accused and her husband. The custodial interrogation of the applicant/accused is not necessary. The husband of the applicant/accused is already released on bail. I am of the view that this is a fit case to release the applicant/accused on anticipatory bail. So, I pass the following order :

ORDER

01. The anticipatory bail application of the applicant/accused Aruna Jagannath Shinde is hereby allowed.

02. The applicant/accused Aruna Jagannath Shinde be released in Crime No.66/2025 registered under sections 420, 406 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 registered at Phaltan City Police Station, Phaltan, District- Satara if she is arrested on her executing P. R. bond of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount.

03. The applicant/accused should not tamper the prosecution evidence, she should not abscond, she should attend the court regularly.

04. The applicant/accused should co-operate the investigating officer and attend the police station if called by the Investigating Officer.
