

S.C.C. No. 277/2026
Sai Shradha Deoli Urban .Vs. Manish Bhoyar

ORDER BELOW EXH. 1

The complaint has been filed under section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act. The complainant has given verification on affidavit. It is alleged that, the accused has issued cheque for the consideration to the complainant which has been dishonoured due to 'Fund insufficient'. The complainant has issued statutory notice to the accused, but the accused has not paid the cheque amount within a stipulated period. Therefore, the complainant has filed the present complaint.

2. The complainant has filed documents on record. From the record it appears that, the complaint is filed within limitation. The complainant has presented the cheque in his account and his bank is situated within the jurisdiction of this Court. Therefore, considering the complaint, verification of the complainant and the documents on record, there are sufficient grounds to proceed against the accused for the offence punishable under section 138 of the N.I. Act.

ORDER

Issue process under section 204 of the Code of Criminal Procedure against the accused for the offence punishable under Section 138 of the N.I. Act on PF.
