G.R.P. Vs. Unknown

ORDER BELOW EXH. 01

This is a proceeding under A Summary filed by Railway Police Station, Wardha.

2. The Sub Divisional Police Officer, Akola Railway has filed the present 'A Summary' report in respect of the crime registered with Wardha Railway Police Station for the offence punishable under Section 379 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per I.O., despite due efforts, the stolen property as well as the accused are not found and their whereabouts are unknown. Further, there is no likely possibility of finding the same in near future. Hence, he is praying for grant of 'A Summary'.

4. Perusal of record shows that, notice was issued to the informant, regarding Protest, if any. However, despite of service of the notice electronically the informant did not raise any protest and no reasons furnished for the said failure till date.

5. The Hon'ble Bombay High Court has issued directions to conduct Special Drive during 09 March, 2026 to 13 March, 2026 to reduce pendency of idle matters. Hence, the matter is taken on today's board for passing orders.

6. Perusal of the final report as per Section 173 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, filed by the Police reflect that, sincere efforts were made to trace out the stolen property as well as the accused. However, the same are not found and there is no likely possibility of finding the same in near future. Further, as mentioned above, the informant has not raised any protest.

7. Therefore, considering the reasons mentioned above, in my view, it is a fit case to grant 'A Summary' as prayed. Accordingly, I proceed to pass following order :

1. 'A Summary' is hereby accepted.
2. Property seized, if any, be returned to its original owner.
3. Case papers be sent to concerned Police Station.
4. Case be disposed off accordingly.
