P.W.D.V.A. No. 201/2025

Dipali + 2 V/s. Hemant

ORDER BELOW MAIN PETITION (EXH. 01)

This is an e-filed proceeding under the provisions of the Protection of Women From Domestic Violence Act.

2. Perusal of record shows that, applicant through the application filed through the concerned Protection Officer, had sought certain reliefs against the respondent including certain interim reliefs to that effect.

3. However, perusal of record shows that, despite of appearance by respondent on 24/04/2026 and grant of sufficient time & several opportunities, he failed to file any reply to the main application as well as the interim reliefs. Today also, no any reply is filed by respondent and no reasons furnished for the said failure.

4. All the applications of interlocutory nature under the D.V. Act needs to be decided within 60 days. In such circumstances, failure on the part of respondent, without any reasonable cause, is causing delay in the same.

5. Hence, considering the nature, age & stage of the matter and for want of any reasonable cause for the failure, it is liable to be proceeded without reply of respondent. Accordingly, I proceed to pass the following order :

1. Matter to proceed without reply of respondent to the main application as well as interim reliefs.
2. Both parties to take note of this order.

3. Present case is e-filed and this order is digitally signed;
Hence only digitally signed order is uploaded on the Case Information System (CIS), without keeping any printed copy.
4. If certified hard copy of this order is asked, the Registry shall provide certified copy by taking printout of the digitally signed order available on the e-Courts' portal.
5. Copy of this order be given to both parties free of costs.
