1) The marriage between petitioner Sau. Shobha and respondent no.1 Pramod was solemnized on March 1, 2006, at Sai Mangal Karyalay in Warora, Tah. Warora, Dist. Chandrapur. Following the marriage, the petitioner resided in the joint family of the respondent no.1. Initially, the respondents treated her well for the first two to three years; however, subsequent to that period, they began to subject her to harassment on various grounds. The respondent no.1 has a history of alcohol addiction and would return home late daily. He expressed a lack of desire to include the petitioner in any of his activities and frequently engaged in physical abuse and verbal insults, questioning her character and suggesting that she should return to her parental home for the festival of Bhaubij. Upon her return to her parental home, the respondent no.1 subsequently contacted the petitioner, insisting that she should not return to his residence. During a meeting organized by her parents for reconciliation at the residence of Chaya Chavare, the respondent publicly accused her of misconduct in the presence of their relatives. Following these events, the petitioner has been living with her parents since November 18, 2021, relying on their mercy.

construction, resulting in a compensation of Rs. 1,27,00,000/- to the family, of which the first respondent received Rs. 50,00,000/-. Furthermore, the respondent retains 7 acres of ancestral land, which is of good quality, yielding an annual income of Rs. 10,00,000/-. Consequently, the petitioner requests to grant interim maintenance in the amount of Rs. 15,000 per month to cover expenses related to medical treatment, rent, clothing, and food.

3) Respondent No.1 filed his reply vide Exh.12 and denied all the allegations. Respondent No.1 Pramod and petitioner have one son and one daughter. Respondent No.1 contended that petitioner has extra marital illegal relationships. When her parents organized meeting on 21.11.2021 she admitted that she has extra marital illegal relations.
