Present application has been filed by applicant nos. 1 to 6 for grant of Heirship Certificate as per Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827.

2. In short, it is the contention of the applicants that applicant no. 1 is widow, applicant no.2,3,5 and 6 are daughters, applicant no. 4 is the son of deceased Narhari S/o Datta Wahewal. Narhari S/o Datta Wahewal died on 02.10.2022 leaving behind applicants as his legal heirs. Applicants further submitted that they are the only legal heirs of deceased Narhari S/o Datta Wahewal. The applicants require Heirship Certificate for the purpose of recognizing legal heirs of deceased Narhari S/o Datta Wahewal for Government and private official works.

3. In that regard, citation notice was published in daily newspapers "Dainik Vachakmanch" dated 21/10/2022 and "Dainik Marathwada Kesri" dated 20/10/2022 and objections were called from the public at large, but no one appeared to resist the claim of applicants.

4. In support of the application, applicant no. 1 has filed an affidavit of evidence at Exh. 12 on behalf of all. She has reiterated the same contentions as mentioned in the application.

5. I have gone through documents filed on record, particularly verified copy of death certificates of deceased Narhari S/o Datta Wahewal is at Exh. 19 and verified copies of aadhar card of applicants at Exh. 13 to

18. On perusal of death certificate Exh. 19, it is seen that Narhari S/o Datta Wahewal died on 02.10.2022.

As I mentioned earlier despite of issuance of proclamation no one appeared to resist the claim of applicants. The submission of applicants are duly supported by the evidence of applicants. Moreover, the heirship certificate is merely a formal recognition that the applicants are the legal heirs of deceased. Hence, I have no hesitation to accept the contention that the applicants are legal heirs of the deceased Narhari S/o Datta Wahewal. In the result, I proceed to pass the following order: -

:: O R D E R ::

1. Application is allowed.
2. Issue Heirship Certificate in the name of applicants no. 1 to 6 as per rule for the purpose of formally recognizing heirs of the deceased Narhari S/o Datta Wahewal.
