

Cri.B.A.No.104/2026
Amol v. State
MHWS010003442026

Order below Exh.1.

The applicant Amol Bhagwan Jadhav has filed present application for grant of regular bail under section 483 of BNSS, 2023 in crime no.22/2026 for the offence punishable under sections 137(2), 64(2)(i)(m), 69, 87, 96 of Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023 and section 4,6,8 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act 2012, registered with Police Station Shirpur, Tq.Malegaon, Dist. Washim.

2. Heard learned advocate for the applicant/accused and learned APP for the State.

3. The learned advocate submitted that the applicant/accused is arrested on 16/02/2026 and since then he is in jail. The FIR shows that on 17/01/2026 at about 10 am the informant along with her daughter had gone for harvesting Tur crop in the field of one Sheshrao Navghare and they returned home at about 06.30 pm. Thereafter, at about 07.30 pm, the informant went to the house of Manoj Thakare for bringing milk while her daughter remain at home and was cooking food. When informant came home he found her daughter was missing. Despite search in nearby area, she could not found thereafter informant learnt that the applicant was also not present in the village since 17/01/2026, therefore, on suspicion she lodged report on 20/01/2026 alleging that the applicant has taken away her daughter.

4. It is further submitted that on the basis of CDR analysis and investigation, the victim was traced out at Nashik with the present applicant. It is submitted that the applicant is student and peace loving and law abiding citizen. There is delay of 3 days in lodging FIR which is not explained by prosecution. The investigation is substantially completed and no further custodial interrogation is required. The applicant is ready to abide by any condition which may be imposed by the Court while granting bail. Hence, prayed to allow the bail application.

5. The learned APP and investigating officer have filed say vide Exh.05 and strongly objected the application on the ground that the offence is serious in nature and is in respect of minor victim. The investigation is in progress. If applicant is released on bail, he may pressurize prosecution witnesses. Hence, prayed to reject the application.

6. The complainant also filed her reply vide Exh.06 and objected the application of applicant. It is submitted that if applicant is released on bail, there will be cause threat to the life of victim. Hence, prayed to reject the application.

7. I have gone through the record. It appears that applicant/accused is arrested on 16/02/2026. Since then, he is in jail. After going through the statement of victim it reveals that she specifically stated in her statement that applicant on the pretext of marriage took her along with him by train to Nashik and established physical relations with her on multiple occasions. The documents show the prima facie involvement of this applicant in this crime. Hence, considering this facts and circumstances, the application is liable to be rejected. Hence, I pass following order.
