

ORDER

Perused application and say.

By this application the defendant no.1 has requested to allow him to produce documents on record. According to the defendant it is necessary to file some important documents on record. Plaintiff strongly opposed the application submitting that the application is not tenable at this stage and hence it may be rejected.

On going through the documents annexed with the application, it seems that the defendant no.1 intends to file photocopies and certified copies of sale-deeds and 7/12 and mutation entry extracts, the plaintiff have right of rebuttal, in such circumstances the production of documents will facilitate adjudication of suit on merits. Accordingly, the production is allowed. No costs.
