ORDER BELOW EXH.28.

(Pandhari Sadbarai Maske Vs. State Of Maharashtra and Ors.)

This is an application for production of documents. Perused the application, say filed thereon. Heard learned advocates for both sides. It is submitted that, the documents i.e. certified copies of revenue proceeding are material document to defendants. Hence, production of documents may be allowed. Plaintiffs prayed for rejection of application contending that, application is not maintainable and there is no evidence in support of relevance of the documents as contended in the application. On the above grounds plaintiffs prayed for rejection of application.

[2] By the present application, defendant has sought to produce on record the documents i.e. certified copies of revenue proceeding which may be material document to him. Furthermore, there will be no prejudice to plaintiff, if the production is allowed. Therefore, documents being material, production of the same should be allowed. In the result, following order is passed :

ORDER

1. Application Exh.28 is allowed and thereby, production of documents filed by defendant along with list is allowed only. Defendants are directed to supply copies of documents with list to the plaintiff immediately.
2. No order as to costs.
3. Parties to the suit shall take note of this order.
