

ORDER BELOW EXH.20.
(CNR No. MHWS02001004-2022)

Read the application and say. Perused the record.

2] Through this application the plaintiff has contended that he want to file certain important documents on record. That the said document is necessary for proper adjudication of the matter. Therefore, he may be permitted to file the document.

The defendant on the other hand strongly opposed the application and submitted for its rejection.

3] I have gone through the record. It appears that the present matter is filed for declaration and possession. The matter is at the stage of evidence of the plaintiff. His affidavit in lieu of examination in chief is filed on record. It is seen that the document which plaintiff intends to file is the registered sale deed dated 09/03/1989. It is pertinent to note that the photo copy of the said document is already filed on record. So also, mere production of documents would not caused any prejudice to the other party as they have opportunity to cross examine the witness. Therefore, considering the nature of the present suit and the stage of the matter, in my view application deserves to be allowed. Hence, I proceed to pass the following order -
