

ORDER PASSED BELOW EXH.112

This is an application filed by plaintiff permission to file the documents.

2) The plaintiff has contended that, they want to file the important documents pertaining to the suit. Therefore, permission be granted to file the documents. The defendant has filed say on the application and opposed it. Defendant contended that, argument on behalf of defendant is over, there is no provision to filed the document at this stage. Lastly he prayed to reject the application.

3) Perused the record. Heard both side. The plaintiff with list of this application intending to file important documents i.e. 7/12 extracts and 8-a extract of suit property. These are the public documents. The said documents are related to the suit and it is necessary to decide the suit on merit. Therefore, in my view if the permission granted for the production of the documents, no prejudice would cause to the defendant. Hence, I proceed to pass the following order:
