supratnama by imposing terms and conditions.

3. on the other hand, the prosecution opposed the application by filing reply at Ex.6 in which it is contended that as the mobile is important piece of evidence used for conversation for committing the serious offence and if allowed the applicant may change the nature of the mobile.

4. Heard counsel for the applicant and learned APP for the State. Perused record. It appears from the say of I.O necessary investigation regarding the mobile has been done and as the accused is released by the Hon'ble High Court and therefore, they have no objection if the mobile is released.

5. After hearing both sides and the nature of offence for which the mobile was seized it appears that the purpose of seizure of the muddemal seems to be over and therefore, the I.O has given the no objection for releasing the same on supratnama and therefore, considering the same and the cost of mobile I allowed the application and pass the following order:-
