

IN THE COURT OF SESSIONS, YAVATMAL

MHYA010007192026

Sessions Trial No.29/2026

State Vs. Prashant Dongare

Order Below Exh.02

(Passed on 9th June, 2026)

Perused application and reply filed by prosecution. Heard the learned counsel for applicant and learned APP. The applicant stands prosecuted for offence punishable under sections 108, 115(2), 351(2), 351(3) of BNS. It is alleged that the applicant assaulted deceased on 24/01/2026 with metal pot, he threatened the deceased to harm her parents. The deceased felt humiliated by this incident and therefore she committed suicide by hanging herself.

2. The investigation is completed in this matter. Charge-sheet was filed long ago yet charge is not framed. Trial will take long time to come to its conclusion. Applicant is ready to abide by all conditions and furnish surety. Learned public prosecutor Shri. N. N Pande expressed apprehension that the applicant may influence witnesses because applicant is neighbour of the witnesses. He submitted that witnesses are young children of deceased. Therefore it is easy for the applicant to influence them. Suitable conditions can be imposed to prevent abuse of discretion exercise in favour of applicant. He can be prevented from entering Ruiwai, the native place of applicant and witnesses during pendency of this trial. No purpose would be served by keeping the applicant behind bars during pendency of entire trial as it would result in pre trial detention. Therefore this is fit case to exercise discretion in favour of applicant. With this I pass the following order.

ORDER

1) Application Exh.2 is allowed. The applicant is released on executing bond of Rs.25,000/- with a surety of like amount subject to following conditions:

(a) The accused/applicant Prashant Gautam Dongare shall not enter Ruiwai, Tq. & Distt. Yavatmal till conclusion of this trial.
