

ORDER BELOW EX.1

Perused the record. The present case is of the year 2015. The offences alleged against the accused persons are punishable under Sections 324, 504 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

2) In the present matter, despite issuance of non-bailable warrants and proclamation on several occasions, the accused has remained absent and his presence could not be secured. The prosecution has failed to produce the accused before the Court. The matter is being unnecessarily prolonged for want of securing the presence of the accused, thereby adding to the pendency of cases.

3) On perusal of the record, it is evident that non-bailable warrants and proclamations were issued against the accused at different stages, yet he has not been traced. His presence could not be secured till date. It is therefore sufficiently established that the accused has absconded and there exists no immediate prospect of arresting him in the near future. In such circumstances, it is just, proper and necessary to proceed in accordance with Section 299(1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

ORDER

1. The prosecution is permitted to examine the witnesses in the absence of the accused, as contemplated under Section 299(1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.
2. The prosecution is directed to take steps for summoning the witnesses.
3. Issue standing non-bailable warrant against the accused.
