

This order arises out of a petition filed by the learned APP U/s-321 Cr.PC on the ground mentioned therein, in the National Lok Adalat .The record is placed for disposal in National Lok Adalat today . He/ She has mentioned that his case is coming Under the Govt. Of Odisha Home Dept. Letter No. 3567/ Pros, Bhubaneswar, dated 28.01.2017 HOME- PROS- Case- GR-0001-2017 for its withdrawl. The learned APP also gives personal opinion that the Withdrawl of this case would really Sub-serve the public interest at large.

On perusal of the case record this court found that the submission of Ld A.P.P found to be correct. From the case record it reveals that inspite of Summons/Warrants the attendances of the accused/accused persons has/have not been procured. There is also break chance of his/her/their appearance in near future. Further considering the nature of accusation and gravity of offence, it would be proper to allow the prosecuton to withdraw the case as it would be sub-serve the interest of justice. Since the trial of the case is yet to be commenced/pending, the accused/accused person is/are discharged/acquitted there from as per provision under section 321 Cr.PC. The petition is disposed of accordingly.

Dictated

Sd/-

S.D.J.M., Jharsuguda