

207 Ravina Rani Vs State of Punjab

Present: Sh. BS Ghuman counsel for applicant.
APP for the State.

Police record received and perused. Heard on the bail application filed by accused/applicant Ravina Rani. Perusal of record reveals that accused/applicant has been apprehended in the present case for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 221, 132, 351(3), 3(5) of BNS. The accused Ravina Rani is in custody since 18.08.2024, so, accused Ravina Rani is no more required for custodial interrogation as nothing is to be recovered from her. It is general principle of Criminal Jurisprudence that accused is presumed to be innocent until proved guilty and guilt of accused Ravina Rani are to be proved during trial, however presentation of challan and then conclusion of trial will take sufficient time. So, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the accused/applicant behind the bars rather it would be burden on State Exchequer. As such, above named accused/applicant namely Ravina Rani is ordered to be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount, failing which accused be kept in custody. Police record is returned.

Requisite bonds not furnished. Record of bail application be attached with the remand papers.

Date of Order: 29.08.2024.
