

ORDER BELOW EXH. 1 IN S.C.C. NO. 21560/2021

Subhash Dattatray Khude

Vs

Shrirangrao @ Sawlaram Pandharinath Thube

(Passed on 28.06.2024)

CNR:MHPU040277622021

Today, the complainant is present along with his learned Advocate. He is duly identified by his learned advocate. The complainant has filed withdrawal pursis at (Exh. 33), stating that the case is amicably settled between the parties. Matter is posted for part heard evidence. Complainant has no grievance against accused and does not want to proceed with this case. Thus, the complainant wants to withdraw the present case. It seems that, pursis is filed by him voluntarily. The alleged offence punishable under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 is compoundable. There is sufficient ground to permit the complainant to withdraw the complaint, as the matter is amicably settled between the parties and complainant is not having any grievance against the accused. Considering all these aspects, following order is passed-

ORDER

1. This case is disposed of as it is amicably settled between the parties in view of withdrawal pursis at (Exh.33).
2. The accused is acquitted of the offence punishable under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 vide Section 257 of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1973.
3. Court fees be refunded as per rules.
