

C.S. (COMM) 17/26
BANK OF INDIA VS. SUNITA JAIN

26.05.2026

Present: Sh. Deokant Tripathi and Sh. Aman Pandey, Ld.
Counsel for plaintiff.

Sh. Yogendra Kumar, Ld. Counsel for defendant along with defendant.

Matter is listed today for final arguments. However, Ld. Counsel for parties submits that evidence before Ld. Local Commissioner has not been concluded. Ld. Counsel for defendant submits that he intends to cross-examine the PW-1 as due to some personal reason, he could not appear before Ld. Local Commissioner for cross-examination of said witness and orally requests for allowing him to cross-examine the said witness. Request is opposed by Ld. Counsel for plaintiff.

Heard. Record perused. In the interest of justice, oral request of Ld. Counsel for defendant to cross-examine PW-1 stands allowed. Let the witness PW-1 be cross-examined before Ld. Local Commissioner on 29.05.2026 at 02:00 pm failing which, the right to cross-examine PW1 will be automatically closed. Cost to cross-examine PW-1 before Ld. Local Commissioner shall be borne by the defendant. Defendant thereafter shall conclude his evidence within five days.

At request, put up this matter for final arguments on 08.06.2026.

(Gorakh Nath Pandey)
District Judge (Commercial Court)
North-East, KKD Courts, Delhi
26.05.2026