Bail Application case no: 96/ 2026 (Sessions Case no: 47/ 2018)

SL. No.	Date	Order	Signature
	22/4/2026	1. Seen the bail petition filed on behalf of the accused, Shri Kamal Chauhan @ Om Prakash Chauhan praying to allow him to go on bail. 2. The Ld. Counsel for the accused has submitted that the accused defaulted in appearance on the date fixed as the wife of the accused was seriously ill and the accused could not come to court because he had to look after his wife; hence he may be allowed to go on bail. 3. I have heard both the sides. 4. The perusal of record reveals that the accused, Shri Kamal Chauhan @ Om Prakash Chauhan was already granted bail and he was appearing regularly, but he failed to appear on 9/3/2026; hence NBWA was issued against him and thereafter he was arrested on 25/3/2026 and produced before me and again sent to judicial custody. 5. I have perused the copy of the medical documents of the wife of the accused which is submitted alongwith the bail petition.

Continued 22/4/2026	6. In my considered opinion, the ground shown by the accused for his absence on 9/3/2026 is found to be genuine and reasonable because the wife of the accused was seriously ill and he was busy with her treatment and so the accused might have had to take care of her which shows that his non-appearance was not intentional, hence the prayer for bail is allowed. 7. The accused Shri Kamal Chauhan @ Om Prakash Chauhan is allowed to go on bail of Rs.50,000/- with one surety of like amount. 8. Send a soft copy as well as a hard copy of this order to the Ld. Superintendent of Jail, Diphu and he is directed to furnish a copy of this order to the accused. 9. The bail petition is disposed of accordingly.
