File put up before the undersigned being Duty Judge during summer vacations.

Apprehending his arrest, the applicant has filed the instant application under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for grant of anticipatory bail.

Arguments are heard. Learned counsel for the applicant has argued that the applicant is law abiding citizen, who is innocent. He has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR and has been named in the FIR just in order to settle the political score with the applicant. No specific role in the occurrence has been attributed to him. He was not even present at the spot, at the time when alleged occurrence took place.
The applicant has apprehension of his arrest for non-bailable offence as the police is raiding his residence. Custodial interrogation of the applicant is not required and he is ready to join the investigation. He will not make any kind of threat or inducement to any person, who is acquainted with facts of the case. Nothing is to be recovered from him. Thus, the applicant may kindly be granted concession of pre-arrest bail. On the other hand, learned Learned Addl. Public Prosecutor for the State has opposed this application.

This FIR was registered at the instance of Kulbhushan Kumar, Naib Tehsildar. The allegations are that many persons including Karamjit Singh, Bharpur Singh, Krishan Singh, Jasbir Singh obstructed the public way by laying a Dharna and they also obstructed the public servants from discharging their duty. The applicant has reason to believe that he may be arrested on an accusation of having committed a non-bailable offence. Considering the nature and gravity of the offence and all aspects, this court is of the considered view that custodial interrogation of the applicant is not required. Thus, he is granted interim bail and is directed to appear before the Investigating Officer and join the investigation within a period of 7 days and in the event of his arrest, he be released on furnishing the personal bail bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Investigating Officer/Arresting Officer. This bail order is subject to the following conditions:

- I) That the applicant shall join the investigation as and when called by the investigating officer;
- II) That the applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

III) That the applicant shall not leave the country without prior permission of the court.

Now, to come come up on 06.07.2021 for awaiting report of Investigating Officer. File be also put before Learned Sessions Judge Patiala for entrustment.
