Cr.M.P.No. 964 / 2026

(CNR No.TN AL010014992026)

Ravichandiran, aged 52/2026

S/o. Jayaraman.

... Petitioner/Accused

/Vs/

The State represented by the Inspector of Police,
Thalavai Police Station,
In Crime No. 60/ 2026.

... Respondent/Complainant.

This petition coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru. V. Thamizharasan, Advocate for the petitioner and of Thiru.C.Chinnathambi, Public Prosecutor for the state and upon hearing both sides and upon perusing the petition and other relevant records, this court delivered the following;

ORDER

The petitioner has filed a petition u/s. 482 BNSS for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner through E-filing.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the respondent police has registered a case against the petitioner in Crime No. 60/2026, U/s. 296(b), 115(1), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS Act 2023 on 31.05.2026. The alleged date of occurrence was on 27.05.2026. The petitioner is no way connected with the occurrence and a false case has been foisted on him . Hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail.

3. The learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the anticipatory bail application. Further he stated that the victim discharged from the hospital.

4. This Court perused the rival submissions of both side. The respondent police has registered a case against the petitioner in Crime No.60/2026, U/s. 296(b), 115(1), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS Act 2023 on 31.05.2026. It is submitted by the learned Public Prosecutor that there is a dispute between the both parties. The petitioner was abused with filthy words and attacked the complainant and and threatened to kill him. The victim was sustained injury and he was admitted in hospital . Now the injured has been discharged from the hospital. The investigation has been substantially completed in this case. Hence, on considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary, hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with following conditions;

1. That the petitioner/accused shall be released on bail in the event of his arrest or his surrender or appearance on him executing a bond for sum of Rs.25,000/- along with two sureties each for the like sum to the satisfaction of the District Munsif – cum - Judicial Magistrate, Sendurai.
2. That the Petitioner /accused shall appear and sign before the Respondent Police Station daily at 10.00 A.M for 3 weeks.
3. That the petitioner/Accused shall surrender on or before 23.06.2026 failing which the Anticipatory Bail granted to them shall stand canceled under due process of law.
4. That the petitioner/accused shall not abscond during investigation or trial.
5. The petitioner/accused shall not tamper with evidence or witnesses during investigation or trial.

6. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the bail is granted to him shall stand cancelled under due process of law and the concerned Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs State of Kerala (2005) AIR SCW 5560).
7. If the petitioner/accused absconds, the respondent police shall register a case U/s. 269 Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023.

This order was dictated by me in the open Court to the Stenographer and transcribed and typed by her and corrected and pronounced by me in open Court this the 8th day of June 2026.
